

Cattlemen, We Welcome You

To El Paso's "Store of Quality"

To our Spring Opening Exhibit—and to a pleasant visit to the most beautiful store in El Paso—Come—make yourself at home here—This store is your store.

A Special Opening Feature Women's Silk Foulard Dresses

Worth to $12.50. Extra Special. $5.00

There's a magnificent selection of rich, beautiful designs in these soft, lustrous silks, in beautiful colorings, with rich trimmings of dainty laces—exquisite models—These dresses will be sold only on Tuesday—on the 2nd floor—and will be a feature of this Opening Sale.

News Brevities

(Advertisement.)

Train Bulletin.
Train No. 3, the Golden State Limited, due at 5:50 p. m. is reported 25 minutes late. All other afternoon and night trains are reported on time for Monday.

Dr. A. T. Still Osteopathic Infirmary.
Dr. Ira W. Collins, physician in chief; Dr. Amelia Burk, Dr. Grace Parker, Dr. Paul H. Collins, consulting physicians; 261 West Missouri street.

Tests Aeroplane Is Killed.
Amberley, France, March 17.—A French aviator, Mercher, was killed while testing an aeroplane. He attempted too sharp a turn and the machine capsized.

Dr. Klebs, diseases of lungs, stomach, intestines, Roberts-Banner Bldg.
Dr. Robinson, diseases of children, and obstetrics, 211 Roberts-Banner Bldg.

Paula Gaa Tricker to End Life.
Des Moines, Iowa, March 17.—Carl L. Norbye, of Lake Mills, Iowa, whose body was found in a park here, had tied both ends of a handkerchief to the triggers of a double-barreled gun placed the muzzle at his head, and using his foot in the handkerchief loop, discharged the gun. The coroner's verdict declared it a case of suicide.

Prompt Transfer Service.
For prompt baggage, heavy, hack and freight transfer, call Pomeroy's El Paso Transfer, Phone 244.

Phone 256 for your drug wants. R. F. Love, druggist, 211 San Antonio St.

B. F. Youkum's Daughter to Wed.
New York, N. Y., March 17.—Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Youkum, of this city and San Antonio, Tex., have announced the engagement of their youngest daughter, Miss Bessie F. Youkum, to Francis R. Larkin, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Larkin, of New York. Mr. Larkin was graduated from Princeton with honors in 1911.

Dr. Jones, Foot Specialist, Mills Bldg.
at night by appointment, Phone 788

Wallpaper and paper hanging; lowest prices. A. Golding, 119 South Stanton.

Mexicans Do Some Shooting.
Several Mexican Saturday night in vicinity of the union stock yards a number of shots. The members of the sheriff's department, who were to investigate, were unable to find the implicated in the shooting.

Jamieson, diseases of kidneys, eye, rectum and skin; 618 Mills Bldg.

Flora Co., cheapest cut flowers, 102 Texas, phone 274.

Salvation Comes Death of Child.
Liver, Colo., March 17.—From the jaws of famine the nine-month-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Miller, a city, is dead, and an older child is sick. A "traveling fumigator" employed to disinfect the home, according to Mrs. Miller.

Headquarters for Mazda lamps, Gem Bldg, 501 San Antonio St.

Dr. Nettie Satterlee, osteopath, 419 Mills Bldg, phone 141.

Appeals for Help: Ends Life.
Los Angeles, Cal., March 17.—After writing a telegram to a friend in Kansas City, asking for assistance in returning to that city, and learning that the message could not be transmitted because the telephone office had closed, Miss Nettie Tabler went to the beach at Venice and sent a bullet through her heart. The young woman was not known in Los Angeles or Venice. She was about 21 years old, pretty and well dressed, and her name, according to advice from Kansas City, was at Hardin.

Dr. Marford, obstetrics, diseases of children & kidneys, fevers, digestive & nervous diseases, 211 Roberts-Banner Bldg.

Dr. Ratliff, dentist, 264 Caples Bldg.
Harriman Estate Valued at $50,000,000.
New York, March 17.—An inventory of the estate of the late R. H. Harriman furnished the state controller by Mrs. Harriman and published her shows that when he died in 1905 it was valued in the aggregate at $75,000,000. The estate at present is valued at about $50,000,000. The reports that Mr. Harriman, prior to his death distributed $50,000,000 of railroad stocks to members of his family are shown by the appraisal to be untrue.

Dr. Cameron, dentist, 325 Mesa Ave.
Mexican Herald on sale at news wagon, Oregon and San Antonio.

Rioters Attack Suffragists.
London, Eng., March 17.—Suffragists who again attempted to hold a meeting in Hyde Park were mobbed by a crowd of 10,000 persons. They were pelted with clods, oranges and other missiles and when the police were escorting them from the scene the rioters tore off the hats and cloaks of the women and even struck some of them in the face.

For home wiring and fixtures see the National Telegraph and Supply Company, 317 Mills street.

Marshall to Address Students.
Charlotte, N. C., March 17.—It is announced here that Vice President Marshall will deliver the principal address at the commencement exercises of the University of North Carolina in June.

Dr. Page, dentist, 561 Roberts-Banner.

Will Not Dismiss Darrow Case.
Los Angeles, Cal., March 17.—District attorney John D. Fredericks says that Clarence S. Darrow's third trial on a charge of jury bribing in connection with the McNamara dynamite case will be begun March 21. The date set by superior judge W. M. Conley, who presided at the second trial. This statement was brought forth by published reports that attorney Fredericks would move for the dismissal of the indictment against Darrow.

Chiropractor, Mrs. Benson, Herald Bldg.

Dr. Garrett, stomach, intestines and internal diseases, 462 Roberts-Banner Bldg.

Lucas Life at Niagara Falls.
Niagara Falls, N. Y., March 17.—Miss Josephine Kiehl, 35 years old, of Buffalo, while viewing the falls with a party of friends from a point on Luna Island, lost her balance, fell into the river and was carried over the American falls. The body was not recovered.

El Paso Carriage and Auto Painting Co., 291-293 S. Oregon, phone 1357.

Sweet Peas Damaged by Frost.
Sweet peas, which are scarce as orchids in El Paso unless the later crop escapes the cold, Florists and amateur gardeners report that all the sweet peas which are above the ground were frosted Saturday night and that the early sweet pea crop will be a complete loss this spring.

Dr. T. W. Crowder, eye, ear, nose and throat, 412-11 Mills Bldg, phone 1093.

Dr. Ebert, dentist, 214-218 Mills Bldg.

Unknown Man Assaults Teacher.
Medora, N. D., March 16.—A sheriff's posse searched the surrounding country for an unknown man who was said to have attacked Miss Emma Larson, a school teacher, held her captive for several hours. When released, the young woman staggered into town and collapsed after telling her story. It is reported from the hospital tonight that she is in a serious condition.

Oregon Grocery, 505 N. Ore., phone 1721.

C. H. Williams & Co., 223 S. Stanton, painting and paperhanging.

Reprieve for Condemned Man.
New York, N. Y., March 17.—With his electrocution set for an early hour Monday for the murder of Patrick McGree, known as "Paddy the Priest," a saloonkeeper of this city, John Mulroney received the news at Sing Sing prison that governor Sulzer had granted him a reprieve of 60 days. Mulroney already had done the clearing provided by the state for the execution when the word reached the prison.

SOCIAL DOINGS IN THE SOUTHWEST

MARFA, TEXAS.

Marfa, Texas, March 17.—Mrs. Will Richmond has returned from a month's visit to El Paso.

Lee Cartwright has left for San Antonio.

Mrs. G. Clark and little son, Marathon, are visitors in Marfa.

The recent cake sale by the Mothers' club brought in enough money to pay the debt on the school auditorium.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Britte have returned from Amarillo.

The play given by the pupils of the Fort Davis High school was a decided success.

Mrs. Robt. Greenwood and her daughter, Miss Sue, have returned from El Paso. Mrs. Greenwood is much improved in health.

Mrs. James Norman entertained the Baptist Aid society and Mrs. L. W. Roberts entertained the Presbyterian Aid.

Both affairs were largely attended.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Lacy, after a short time spent in Marfa, have returned to Alpine to make their home there.

Mrs. Clarence Chambers and little daughter have been on a visit to their old home in east Texas and are at home again.

H. F. Story, of Fort Stockton has arrived in Marfa to assume charge of the telephone system here.

Mrs. R. R. Smith has returned home from a visit of several weeks in Beeville.

Mrs. J. C. Darracott entertained the Aid of the Christian Church at the Baptist Aid on Wednesday.

Mrs. A. F. Mitchell entertained a few friends at 8 o'clock dinner Thursday.

Mrs. T. C. Mitchell entertained the members of the "42 club" on Friday.

L. Vaughn, of Fort Stockton, and his wife, constitute a force of rangers stationed at Shafter.

Chas. Hutchins, of Fort Davis, accompanied by his little girl, stopped in Marfa, en route to Massachusetts, where Mr. Hutchins goes to secure medical advice.

Jack Knigh has been elected captain of the Marfa fire company.

Clyde Buttrill, of Alpine, is visiting in Marfa.

A. H. Rhodes and R. T. Durrett, of Fort Stockton, were in Marfa.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Corder, of Abilene, are expected in Marfa in a few days to visit relatives.

Rev. Chalmers McPherson was in Marfa this week to deliver a series of lectures at the Christian church.

Mrs. F. Pool entertained with "500" in honor of the young men of the school who have rooms at her home.

Mrs. A. M. Porter is going to the San Antonio Hot well.

FORT DAVIS, TEXAS.

Fort Davis, Tex., March 17.—W. K. Keesey and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Miller have returned from Houston, Tex., where they attended the grand lodge of L. O. P. and Rebekahs.

Miss Eva Jones has returned from Alpine, where she visited Mrs. Thalia Giffert for a couple of weeks.

Charles Shedd, of Grand Rapids, Mich., died here. His mother and father were with him. They left with his body to be buried at their old home in Amarillo.

Pope Henson, of Alpine, is in Fort Davis.

Charles Mulburn was ill for a few days the past week.

W. D. Riser, editor of the Fort Davis Post, has purchased a white Buick automobile.

E. R. Patterson has bought a Buick automobile.

W. H. Powells and family and Mr. and Mrs. Cary Prude were in town from the Prude ranch.

C. A. Hutchens and little daughter, Edith, returned to Boston, where Mr. Hutchens goes for medical treatment. They were accompanied as far as El Paso by Mrs. Hutchens.

Thompson taking them to Marfa in his automobile.

Medames E. H. Carlton, R. S. Spruit and J. E. Davis will attend a lecture to be given at Marfa Wednesday night by a mission field lecturer of the Methodist church.

Mrs. O. L. Shipman has returned from a several weeks stay at El Paso.

Mrs. L. E. Cartwright has returned from the Saturday bridge club. Only club members were present. Miss Juanita Watson will be the next hostess at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Prude.

Quite a number of the Fort Davis citizens expect to attend the cattleman's convention at El Paso.

The weather continues cool and cloudy. Fruit trees, such as apricots, plums and peaches are all in blossom.

H. G. Thompson has returned from El Paso.

The Fort Davis public school put on a play, "The Boy by a Wager," at Marfa, Friday night.

Some of the Fort Davis people attending the play at Marfa were: Mrs. L. E. Cartwright, J. D. Dumble, Irene Davis, Eva Dumble, Roberta Sprout, Irl Wetherly, John Bance, Joe Wetherly, Elmer Cartwright, Mary Sprout and S. A. Thompson.

Miss Maud Edens' pupils gave a recital at the school auditorium Friday.

ALPINE, TEXAS.

Alpine, Tex., March 17.—Miss Mayer Young entertained the Auction Bridge club this week.

The members of the Mountaineers' club gave a well attended smoker in the club house.

Capt. James James has been seriously ill.

Clyde Buttrill has gone to San Antonio.

J. L. Sedbury, of Abilene, has been visiting friends here.

Jeane Pruett is visiting his family here.

D. Beach has returned from Corpus Christi.

J. D. Martin attended court in Fort Stockton this week.

R. B. Mitchell has returned to his home in Temple, Texas.

George Miller and Daniel Coffman, of John Griner, were in Alpine this week.

T. M. Newton has returned to his ranch.

Judge Wigfall Van Sickle has returned from Fort Stockton.

Sewing class this week.

Members of the Alpine Study club will be entertained in the near future by the members of the Marfa Study club.

Mrs. J. E. Ewell Taylor and her daughters, Misses Grace and Laura, will leave next week for Navarro, Tex., where they will make their home.

Mrs. C. H. Weaver has gone to Marathon to visit her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Weaver.

P. Poor, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Beverly Greenwood, has returned to San Antonio.

Mr. and Mrs. Caswell Edwards, of Sanderson, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Edwards, and Mr. and Mrs. John Young.

Mrs. David Kleinman has returned with her children from a visit to her brother, Fred, in El Paso.

Mrs. F. M. Austin and her children are planning a trip to California.

CUTTER, N. M.

Cutter, N. M., March 17.—Mrs. Festine Heffernan has gone to El Paso to visit her husband, who has a position there.

J. L. Hunt and W. G. Linget, of the H. H. L. Lumber Co., are here looking over their range and stock interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave McCauley have moved to their new residence and are having a well dug, preparatory to putting in a truck garden.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Graham have moved into their new residence, which was completed this week at their 1-2-3 View home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shultz and relative, W. Thompson, have returned from a pleasure trip to Elephant Butte.

Claud Heffernan, who has been suffering with heart trouble for the past three months, is better and is thought to be out of immediate danger.

Mrs. Jim McCallister, accompanied by her two youngest children is visiting friends near Orange, N. M.

Otis Gardner, of Elephant Butte, is on his way home after visiting friends this week.

L. W. Parker has returned from Las Cruces, N. M., where he has been visiting his children. He reports his youngest daughter, Lou, very ill with measles.

Bill Hyler is here again after an absence of several months. He is employed by the Hurt & Linger company.

Will Thompson has returned to his home in Oklahoma after visiting relatives here.

James Ross, a well-known business man here, was seriously hurt by an explosion of gas. He was bruised about the face and came near losing the sight of his left eye. The explosion happened in the Oak saloon, owned by L. H. McCauley. Several other persons were present, but none were hurt except Mr. Ross.

Mrs. W. H. Weston and son, Cecil, are recovering from the grip.

LANGTRY, TEXAS.

Langtry, Tex., March 17.—F. T. Ringling, in charge of extra gang 63, is in town and laying the new long passing track.

T. G. Kilgough, customs inspector, who has been in Valentine for two weeks, has returned.

Night pumper James, of this place, has resigned. Owen Shields, of Marfa, is here to take his place.

The Sewing circle had its initial meeting at the home of Mrs. W. H. Dodd. Those present were: Mesdames Chris. Dillage, Burdwell, Broder, Sanders, Franklin, Dodd and Winter. The hostess served home made pop corn and candy. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. E. Winter.

BALMORHEA, TEXAS.

Balmorhea, Tex., March 17.—Sol Mayer, manager of the Mountaineer Irrigation company, has returned from an extended trip in the north.

Rev. C. S. McCarver, pastor of the Methodist church of this place, filled his regular appointment here and two new members, Marie Edgell and Marie Wilson, were received.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall, of Belpae, are visiting Mr. Hall's brother, William Hall, here.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas, of Belpae, are visiting relatives in Pecos.

Dr. W. A. Wieland has returned from the Casey ranch, where he spent last week.

Will Moore made a business trip to Kent.

Perry Watson has been sick. Will Crowe was down from his ranch in the mountains.

Mrs. W. D. Casey was in from her ranch home in the mountains.

Mrs. Mad Mrs. E. D. Balmom and little daughter, Imogene, went to Hoban.

Ninian Vandenberg, Miss Bernice Jenkins, George Edgell and Miss May Massey went up to Phantom lake.

H. K. Kounts went to Saragosa.

Mrs. Splitgarber and daughter, Miss Clara, of Toyahvale, were in Balmorhea.

Richard Lindsay was in from his home near the "T" ranch.

Fred Bradley made a business trip to Saragosa.

Bennett McCutcheon was in from his ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Grace Vanharn were in from the ranch, visiting relatives.

Charlie Hicks was in Balmorhea from Fort Davis.

Harvey Wilson went to Saragosa.

CORONA, N. M.

Corona, N. M., March 17.—Mrs. G. B. Popp, of Santa Fe, N. M., is in Corona visiting friends and looking after her interests here.

Ernest Digneo, manager of the Popp & Valdes Sheno, has come in to look after his interests.

J. B. Chapman, who has been looking around with a view of locating a place to call home, is in Corona on account of the illness of his daughter. He expects to return soon.

Mrs. E. Herring and baby are visiting Mrs. A. S. McCumant.

Roll Smith, from Lucia, was in town this week.

T. M. Du Bols and family have returned from a trip to the ranch.

Mrs. John Kimmon's mother and brother, Mrs. Allen and A. C. Allen, are visiting here.

Elmer Brooks, who has been visiting R. L. Owen, has gone out to his grand father, Zeb Owens, place in the Gallo canyon.

Ollie Parker is visiting at A. J. Jenkins' ranch.

There is to be a horse race at the race track on March 25.

A dance will be given in Atkinson hall on March 21. Many out of town guests are expected.

More rain and snow has fallen this week than for some time. There has been much moisture during the week and people feel assured it will be an exceptionally good year.

ENGLE, N. M.

Engle, N. M., March 17.—Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Ritch, of this place, a daughter.

Mrs. Gilbert Sundder and daughter, Miss Olive, of Huntington, N. Y., are visiting W. L. Ritch and family here.

Mrs. Nathan Smith and children are visiting her mother, Mrs. A. E. Hickok.

Miss Pearl Ward has returned to the Ward ranch, spending several months here in school.

Mrs. L. A. Bird, of California, is here as the guest of Mrs. E. E. Hickok, until her husband, who is employed at the dairy can procure a suitable dwelling there for her.

Mrs. Allain of Las Palomas Springs, is visiting Mrs. Pullen here.

Watson Ritch, Jr., has been very ill with grip this week.

Col. A. N. Hilton, of San Antonio, N. M., accompanied by Mrs. Wash Hale and Miss Olive Scudder, visited at the Barbee ranch this week in Col. Hilton's new auto.

W. W. Waxson has sub leased the E. K. ranch to E. M. Paxton, of Oklahoma.

Mrs. Joe Cridering has been on the sick list the past week.

TO THE PUBLIC.
At a meeting of the Carpenter's Union it was unanimously voted that they did not sanction any action that Mr. C. E. and Mr. J. E. Luttinger, of the Electrical Workers' Union, No. 532, of El Paso, Texas.

Wm. G. Luttinger, Recording Secretary.

BISBEE, ARIZ.

Bisbee, Ariz., March 17.—Hortense Ritter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ritter, of the Sulphur Springs valley, was married to Ben Golding, formerly of this city, but now of Douglas, at the ceremony was held at the Ritter home and was followed by a supper. Among those present were: Mrs. J. H. Ritter, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shibley, Joe Sparks, H. P. Shipman, Mrs. Joe Boyle, Mrs. Nora Jacobs, Miss Amy Hanley, Lewis Shibley, Mrs. T. Potter, Mrs. J. W. Smith and Will Bowers.

J. Fenell, manager of the C. F. & I. company at El Paso, is in the city on business.

Unsubstantiated attorney Joe Morrison has gone to Globe.

George Fredrick was a Douglas visitor.

Wilson, who has been ill for the last few days, is about again.

C. N. Thomas has returned from a trip to his ranch up Tombstone canyon.

Wear a Benjamin No Better Clothes Are Made Wear a Benjamin

Than "Benjamin." Wear a suit this spring and prove it to your own satisfaction. We are now showing a complete assortment of all that's new in fabrics and coloring for Spring and Summer 1913.

Every suit hand tailored and guaranteed to